SECTION 10: FAILURE TO FILE RETURN, FAILURE TO PAY THE RESTAURANT TAX WITHHELD, UNDERPAYMENT OF AMOUNT DUE

- A. If the taxpayer liable for collecting the restaurant tax and filing a return fails to make a return, the City Clerk shall prepare an estimate of the amount of restaurant taxes due based on the best information available to them. Such return shall be processed like any late return; and shall establish the restaurant tax liability of the taxpayer in place of the estimated amount prepared by the City Clerk. However, the City Clerk may later determine that the amount shown in the return is insufficient so there is a deficiency, in the same manner as in the case of other returns.
- B. If the City Clerk determines, by examining available evidence, that the amount of restaurant taxes paid over by the taxpayer is less than the amount required by this subchapter, he or she shall notify the taxpayer of the deficiency. The City Clerk may use any of the methods authorized in division (A) of the section to determine whether a deficiency exists and to determine the amount of such deficiency. If the taxpayer does not object in writing within thirty (30) days of the date of receiving such notice, the taxpayer shall be deemed to have accepted the revised figures for the restaurant tax liability. If the taxpayer does file written objection within the time specified, the taxpayer shall pay the fees, together with penalties and interest, under protest and may thereupon pursue administrative and judicial remedies as provided by this chapter and by state law to seek a refund.
- C. If the City Clerk finds that any taxpayer has overpaid, he or she shall notify them of overpayment and shall refund the amount of the overpayment to them.
- D. When the City Clerk notifies any taxpayer of any estimated amount due, alleged overpayment, or refund, he or she shall include in the notice clear instructions on how, when, and where the taxpayer may protest or appeal the decision.
- E. If any taxpayer or any person, firm, association, or corporation required by this ordinance to pay a restaurant tax or to file a return shall fail to file any return for any month, such failure to file shall constitute a continuing offense against the city and the City Clerk may proceed to estimate and collect the restaurant taxes at any time. In all other cases, no increases shall be made in the taxpayer's restaurant tax liability unless the first notice of such increase is received by the taxpayer within three (3) years of the time the return was first due.

Such criminal penalties shall be in addition to the penalties imposed above.
- D. Any person presenting for payment a credit card, check or draft for payment of the taxes set forth in this section and the payment is dishonored, returned for non-sufficient funds (NSF) or charged back to the city account for any reason shall be charged a fee of fifty dollars ($50.00) in addition to any other penalties, fees or interest provided for herein.
